

Undergraduate Outcomes 2013-2014

97% of 2013-2014 graduates are employed, attending graduate or professional school, or participating in a postgraduate volunteer program.

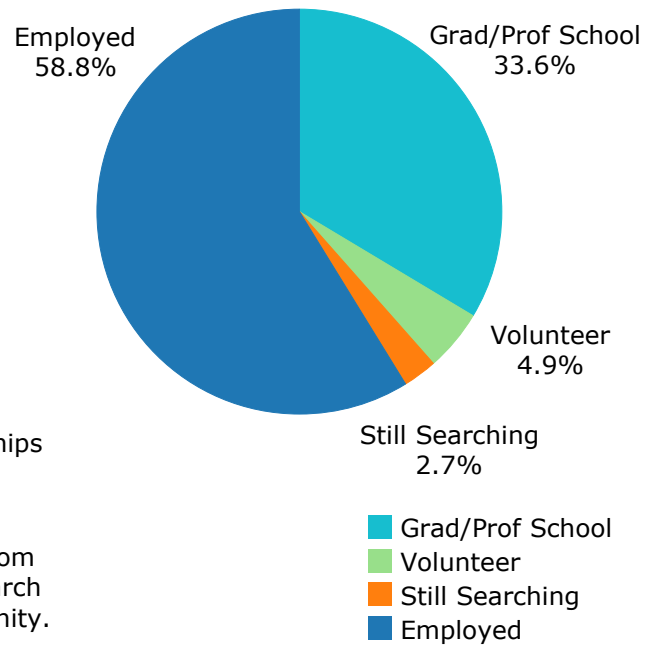

71% completed an experiential learning opportunity by participating in an internship or by engaging in academic research.

56% completed at least one internship. Many students participated in more than one internship, some up to 4 or 5.

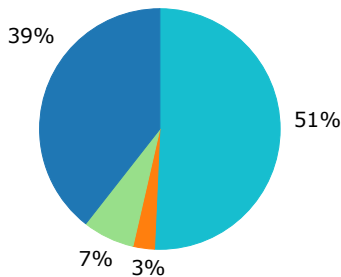

603 is the total number of internships completed by the class of 2013-2014. Students participated in internships in Nebraska, nationally, and internationally.

32% participated in research in a wide variety of areas from health care to economics. Students conducted research on campus, at other institutions, and in the community.

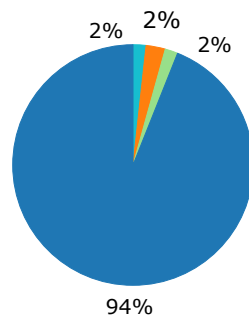

Overall Success Rate: 97%

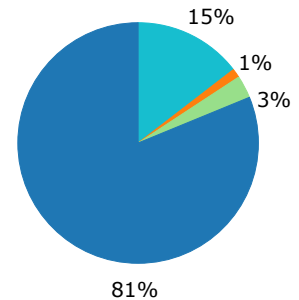

College of Arts & Sciences College of Nursing Heider College of Business

97% Success Rate

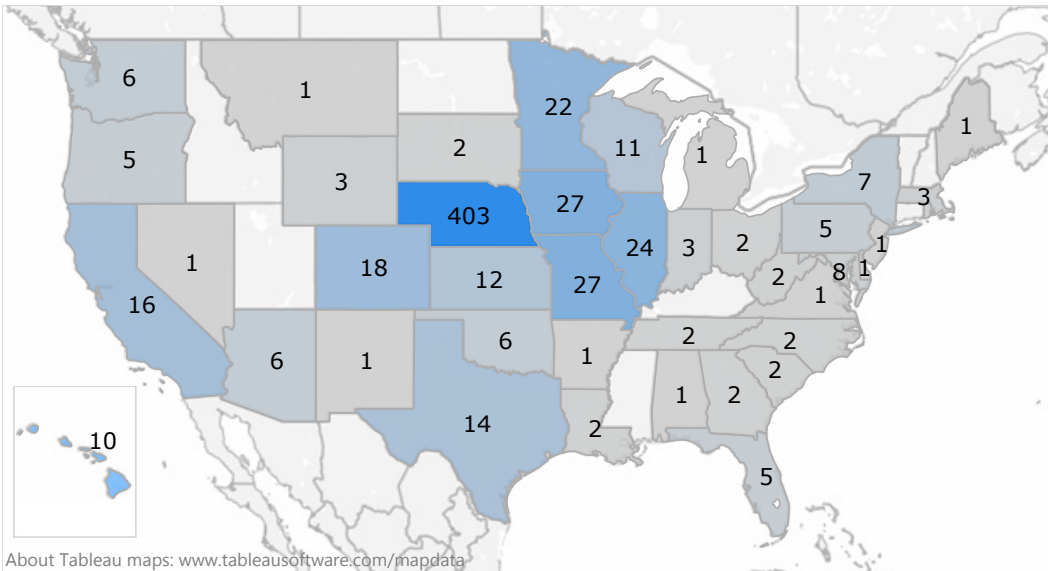

98% Success Rate

99% Success Rate

All statistics and data are based on information collected from December 2013, May 2014, and August 2014 graduates. Information was requested at graduation, three months, and six months after graduation which yielded an 80% response rate. Data presented by:

Where did 2013-2014 Graduates go?

Between employment and continued study as part of a graduate or professional school, 2013-2014 graduates reside in 42 states and the District of Columbia, including Alaska and Hawaii. Internationally, they work or study in 12 other countries and on every continent with the exception of Africa and Antarctica.

About Tableau maps: www.tableausoftware.com/mapdata

Notable Employers and Median Salaries of 2013-2014 Graduates

College of Arts & Sciences	$34,000
College of Nursing	$43,000
Heider College of Business	$47,500

Median salaries for Creighton graduates from all three undergraduate colleges are competitive with national averages despite the fact that many students locate to Midwest cities where the cost of living is much lower than the national average. The highest salaries reported for all three colleges were between $60,000 and $90,000.

Notable Graduate and Professional Schools and Program Type of 2013-2014 Graduates

One-third of the class of 2013-2014 was admitted into graduate or professional school, the highest representation being from the College of Arts & Sciences with over half of their graduates continuing their education. When asked about future plans, another 25% said they intended further education after taking a gap year to complete volunteer work or strengthen their application before applying.

- Boston University
- Columbia University
- Creighton University
- Emory University
- Georgetown University
- Johns Hopkins
- Marquette University
- Pennsylvania State University
- Purdue University
- Royal Conservatoire of Scotland
- Stanford University
- Tel Aviv University
- University College London
- University of Glasgow
- University of Iowa
- University of Maryland
- University of Minnesota
- University of Queensland
- University of Southern California
- University of Texas
- Villanova University
- Virginia Tech

