

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Feast of St. Francis Mass & Celebration

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4, 2024

All are invited to attend the annual celebration of St. Francis, the patron saint of animals and the environment. It's a time to renew our commitment to pray, live, and advocate Laudato Si' and Laudate Deum.

Feast of St. Francis Mass

Friday, October 4, Noon at St. John's Church

All are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Feast of St. Francis Reception & Activities

Immediately following Mass at the Nebraska Native Pollinator Garden located on the upper deck of Reinert-Alumni Library

Join us for a seed gathering activity, blessing of seeds, and refreshments.

"As a Catholic, Jesuit institution, Creighton University must be an authentic source of hope for our students --- past, present, prospective and future --- who are deeply worried about the sustainability of our common home upon which their future depends." --- Rev. Daniel S. Hendrickson, SJ, PhD

Sponsored by: Campus Ministry, St. John's Church, and the Office of Sustainability Programs
