Creighton University Research and Scholarship Strategic Map: 2021-2024

Enhance the Impact and Excellence of University-Wide
Research and Scholarship Aligned with Our Jesuit Values

In All We Do, Cultivate Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in Research and Scholarship

Create the Conditions that Grow Outstanding Research and Scholarship

Α

Develop
Outstanding, Diverse
Student/Learner
Scholars,
Researchers, and Professionals

Recruit, Retain, and Train Diverse Faculty as Researchers and Mentors

C

Secure Sustainable Staffing and Resources Aligned with Research and Scholarship Goals

D

Define Excellence in Research and Scholarship for the University and its Units Enhance Opportunities for Undergraduate Research through CURAS

Develop a Culture around Research and Scholarship Ensure Sufficient Staffing Aligned with Productivity Expectations

Identify and Support Existing and Potential Areas and Centers of Excellence Provide Foundational Instruction on Research for All Disciplines Recruit Mid-Career Faculty with Research Success in Targeted Areas Pursue Philanthropic Support and Develop a Research Endowment for Key Research Areas

Balance Teaching and Learning, Research and Scholarship, and Clinical Faculty Roles

Formalize a Mentorship Program for Our Learners Formalize a Faculty Mentoring Program at Every Career Stage

Grow Extramural Funding

Build Reward Structures and Positive Incentives Including an Indirect Cost Return Policy

Incentivize the Mentoring of Undergraduate, Graduate, and Professional Students Develop Consistent, Ongoing Cross-Campus
Research and Scholarship
Communication and Collaborations

Optimize Cores and Invest in Necessary Infrastructure

Promote Creighton's Range and Diversity of Research and Scholarship

Invest in Graduate/ Professional Student Research Provide Internal Support for Recurring Research and Scholarship Costs

Expand Partnerships with Other Institutions to Share Resources for Mutual Benefit

4

5

1

2